City and Suburban.

PERSONAL.—Gov. R. B. Lindsay, of Alabama, arrived here last night, at the Kimball House, and left this morning for Montgomery.

RAIN.—Yesterday Atlanta was visited with the heaviest fall of rain this season. We learn that the rain was quite general along the line of the railroads.

COLORED EXCURSION.—A colored excursion party went to Vinings station yesterday. Some thirty-two car loads were carried there, leaving enough behind at the depot to start a good sized camp meeting.

FOR BALTIMORE.—Tickets are on sale at the General Ticket office of the Georgia Railroad, for the Baltimore Democratic Convention, by either line via Augusta and Columbia.

CORRECTION.—In the notice of the closing exercises of Oglethorpe University two typographical errors occurred. The word "1st Honorary," after the name of the valedictory orator, should be 1st Honor.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred instead of Master of Arts.

Mr. Editor: You state in your yesterday mornings paper that excursion tickets to Baltimore will be sold by the Coast Line at twenty-nine dollars.

Having business in Augusta, I desired to go that route and called at the ticket office yesterday evening and this morning but was unable to purchase at less than thirty-two dollars by that route. Why is the public thus misled? I pause for a reply.

VISITOR.

THE ALABAMA EXCURSIONISTS.—The excursionists from Montgomery and other points in Alabama reached here yesterday evening, during a heavy fall of rain. There were some 200 or 300 in the party. Among them we noted Col. R. H. Abercombie, of Tuskeegee, and family. A goodly number of ladies were in the party.

At night Colonel S. E. Crittenden, of the Kimball House, gave them a ball and all enjoyed themselves until the "wee sma' hours."

To-day the excursionists are viewing the city, and this evening they will return home.

"1776."—We learn that the immediate and personal friends of Major George B. Chamberlin were most hospitability "Fourthed" yesterday at his rooms on Marietta street. Major C. is an officer of the general government, and proverbially a friend of the poor man. His official connection and position enables him to occasionally put in a word for true manhood, which he never fails to do where virtue and honor are at stake. Although Major Chamberlin is Assistant United States Marshal for this district, his course up to this time in that capacity has been unexceptionable to all good Southern citizens.

It is proper enough to state that on the occasion above referred to politics were not mentioned.

FIRE.—About half past twelve o'clock on the morning of the fourth, the building on the corner of Whitehall and Peters streets was discovered to be in flames. It was a large three story wood building, and very old We learn that a negro family who lived in the basement knew nothing of the fire until the roof was tumbling in. The next house, a two story wooden building, was almost entirely destroyed by the flames.

The fire was intensely hot, and the buildings very near each other. The firemen, however, checked it and saved the third building.

The Whitehall house belonged to V. A Gaskill, and we learn was insured for about $1,000. Loss $500 to $800 above insurance.

The next house was occupied by Mr. A. Lawton as a lager beer saloon and residence. The stock was insured for $750. Most of the stock and furniture was saved. The house belonged to T. Burke and was insured for $1,600. Loss $500 to $800 above insurance.

The building adjoining Lawton's was occupied by Mr. Agricola as a bakery and residence. His stock was insured for $2,400. Most of his stock and furniture were saved in a damaged condition. The house was not injured.

The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

The firemen were on the spot, and did valiant service.

The appropriate address, delivered on Wednesday, at the S. M. F. College Commencement, by Gen. A. C. Garlington, of Atlanta, was one of the most interesting features of the anniversary exercises. The ability and tact displayed the great mental ability of the speaker, while the choice selection of language excited the admiration of all who were so fortunate as to hear it. One thrash in Newton county has hulled out thirty-seven hundred bushels of wheat this season.—Covington Enterprise.

DEMOCRATIC ACTION IN GEORGIA.

OGLETHORPE COUNTY.

LEXINGTON, GA., July 2, 1872.

Editors Constitution: A large number of the Democratic citizens of Oglethorpe county assembled in the Court House at Lexington today for the purpose of organizing the Democratic party of Oglethorpe county and selecting delegates to represent the county in the convention to be held in Atlanta, on the 24th instant.

On motion of Judge Platt, Thos. H. Hawkins, Esq., was called to the chair and Thos. J. Green requested to act as Secretary.

On motion of W. G. Johnson, Esq., the chairman appointed a committee of two from each militia district to report on the organization of the party and to suggest names of delegates to represent the county in the convention in Atlanta on the 24th inst.

The committee, after retiring, returned and reported for President of the Democratic Club of Oglethorpe county, George F. Platt, six Vice Presidents, and a committee of five from each militia district, with Geo. H. Lester as Treasurer, and W. W. M. Lester and J. T. Oliver Secretaries.

The Club to be subject to the call of the President.

And the committee made the following further report:

Resolved, That the Democratic party of Oglethorpe county cordially invite all of our fellow citizens to unite with it in sustaining the great principles of local self-government against centralization, and in sustaining the principles of the Democratic party in the ensuing political campaign.

Resolved, That we recommend the following names, to wit: Whitson G. Johnson, Z H. Clark, T. D. Hutcheson, W. M. Willingham, M. W. Johnson, Joseph Wise, V. M. Nitcher, John T. Hurt as delegates to represent this county in the convention in Atlanta, on the 24th instant.

On motion, the foregoing reports of the committee were adopted.

On motion, it was ordered that the proceedings of this meeting be published in THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, and Sun, and the Chronicle and Sentinel, and Constitutionalist, of Augusta.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

THOS. H. HAWKINS, Chairman.
JAMES J. GREEN, Secretary.

THE DEMOCRACY OF WALTON COUNTY.

Editors Constitution: A portion of the citizens of Walton county met in the Court House on Tuesday the 2d instant for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Gubernatorial Convention to assemble on the 24th instant.

The meeting was called to order, and on motion of Judge Orion Stroud, Judge S. C. Burson was called to the chair.

On motion of G. A. Nunally, J. W. Hinton was requested to act as Secretary.

Judge Burson on taking the chair explained the object of the meeting.

On motion of J. W. Arnold, the chair appointed a committee of five persons to prepare business for the meeting, and to select delegates to represent the county in the convention.

The chair appointed as said committee, Judge Orion Stroud, J. W. Arnold, G. A. Nunally, T. Tanner and J. F. Shipp.

The committee reported as follows:

Whereas the political prospects of the State are such as to give us hope that our political skies are brightening, we congratulate the country and bid those engaged in the good work God speed.

1. Resolved, That we send as delegates to the State Gubernatorial Convention J. W. Arnold, Thomas A. Gibbs, John Nunally, J. B. Sorrells, W. H. Hill and P. J. Robertson, with power to appoint alternates.

2. Resolved, That having confidence in the fidelity of those delegated, we recommend that they be sent untrammelled by instructions, to act as in their judgment best for the interests of the country.

On motion of Dr. Roberts, the report of the committee was adopted.

On motion of C. L. Bowie, the Chairman was instructed to appoint an executive committee for the county of Walton, and report the same to the Secretary, and the Secretary report the same to the Chairman of said appointed committee.

The following are the names of the committee: J. W. Arnold, Chairman; V. H. Crawley, C. L. Bowie, S. H. Broadnax, E. M. Brand, W. V. Armstead, A. Tanner, Barton Treadwell.

Thos. Sheats, H. A. Carithers, H. P. Colquitt, J. S. Dickerson, G. A. Nunally and D. H. Walker, Esqs., then made a few remarks.

On motion of Dr. Hardeman, THE CONSTITUTION and the Southern Banner were requested to publish these proceedings.

On motion of Judge Orion Stroud, the meeting adjourned sine die.

HALL COUNTY.

Editors Constitution: The Democratic party of Hall county held a meeting in Gainesville to-day. Col. Phil. R. Simmons, President; and Capt. W. S. Marler, an office-holder under Gov. Bullock's appointment, was made Secretary pro. tem.

J. E. Redwine, M. Van Estes, A. D. Candler, James M. McDonald, J. B. Estes, C. H. Boyd and H. W. Bieke were appointed to shape matters for the meeting. In their absence Col. E. M. Johnson being called for made a furious speech against the Democratic party fusing with the Greeley party, telling many dangerous things, the principal one of which was that if the Baltimore Convention nominated Greeley it elected Grant.

Committee reported that the Democratic party of Hall county stands upon the same platform of the Democratic party of the State of Georgia, that they invite co-operation of all parties and factions to beat Grant and corruptionists, that this county heartily indorses the action of the State Convention of the 26th ultimo, in Atlanta; that the Democratic party of this county will cordially acquiesce in the action of the Baltimore Convention; that the President of the Democratic Club of the county thoroughly organize the party in the county for the coming campaign.

The meeting adjourned to the 13th inst., at which time it is proposed to appoint delegates to the Gubernatorial Convention.

Thus it will be seen that the tenor of public opinion in Hall, thus expressed in public meeting, is decidedly in favor of acquiescing.

Call for State Democratic Convention

ATLANTA, GA., June 26, 1872.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the State, held this day, it was resolved, that a Convention of the Democratic party be held in the city of Atlanta, on Wednesday, the 24th day of July next, at 12 o'clock M., in the Capitol building, in Atlanta, for the purpose of nominating an Electoral Ticket, and a candidate for Governor. Counties will be entitled to the usual representation.

The Southern Claims Commission.

Francis A. Kuby, of Rome, has been appointed a special commissioner by the Southern Claims Commission to take testimony in Georgia under the late act of Congress.

The commissioners are now receiving applications from counsel who desire to have their clients and witnesses appear personally before the commission between the resumption of sessions in October and the date of the next report to be made to Congress.

George H. Pendleton.

This model of a gentleman, whose Democracy no man can doubt—for it has been tried as by fire—has really written a letter in favor of Greeley and Brown, saying that he confines the Democratic opposition to Greeley to two classes: First, Those who are not sufficiently clear in political sagacity to see that there is no chance for a Democrat; and second, those who secretly desire the re-election of Grant. "The feelings of the times," says Mr. Pendleton, "should be above personality, and all should strike to secure a good and efficient government."

Book Notices.

Get Thee Behind Me Satan—A Home Born Book of Home Truths. By OLIVE LOGAN, (Mrs. Wirt Sykes) author of "Chateau Frissac," etc.

We have received from the publishers, Messrs. Adams, Victor & Co., of New York this work. It is a handsome 12mo. volume of three hundred pages. Its subject, notwithstanding the startling title, is the woman question, which is now looming up into such prominence in the United States. It is fully discussed in all its bearings, and in the vigorous fashion which is associated with the author's tongue and pen. Marriage, divorce, free love, the servant girl question, employment of women, dress, maternity, etc., are treated of without fear or favor, and in a most practical and common sense manner. She makes some startling revelations on almost every page, and has no hesitancy in stating truths, no matter how unpalatable. Miss Logan has drawn largely upon her experience at home and abroad for her facts and incidents. Those who had the pleasure of hearing her here last Spring will remember how brilliant and how fascinating were her lectures. She will be found equally entertaining in print. The work is for sale at Phillips & Crew's book and news emporium.

What is Meant by the Democracy Supporting Greeley.

The Savannah Republican has an exceedingly sensible editorial on the above matter. It says if the Baltimore Convention supports Greeley it does not mean that he is the Democrats' choice, or that they indorse Greeley's past political career, or propose to run him as a Democratic candidate.

But as a vast majority of the party think it out of the question to succeed with a straight candidate, the idea is to divide the dominant Radical party, and by uniting with a portion of it destroy the main body and defeat its despotic designs. A section of that party, under its best men, offers a union, and proposes a war against the main body. They revolt because the main body is usurping power, corrupting the government and rushing the country to ruin. They propose to fight along with the Democracy for principles held in common and neccessary to liberty.

The Republican thus puts it:

"Why, situated as we are, we should make the fight if we had nothing in common with our allies but the defeat of the revolutionary wing of the Republican party, and trust to time and the well known laws of human sympathy for the formation of a sound and safe platform upon which we can both stand when victory shall have perched upon our united standards. But we have more than this in the proposed alliance. We have a pledge that nearly every principle and policy urged by the Democrats as essential to the salvation of the country and the preservation of free government in the future shall be practically and faithfully enforced. And are we to turn our backs upon this offer? Let us draw an analogy from our late unfortunate struggle for independence. Suppose, after Sherman had desolated Georgia, and reached the coast with his victorious army, he had thus addressed the Confederates: "I am here, but I find I am deceived. Instead of the restoration of the Union of our fathers and the preservation of free constitutional government, as I supposed, I find the authorities at Washington are prosecuting the war for the subjugation of your people, for the destruction of your State governments, for the emancipation of your slaves, and for the erection of a brutal African rule over the white race, and finally for a radical change of our institutions as handed down by the patriots of a past age. Instead of warring upon you longer I will with my whole command join you in resistance to those wrongful, revolutionary designs. Follow my lead, and I will conduct you to victory." What would have been thought of the Confederate who declined such an overture as this? How many would have stopped to asked the questions, "Is not this the man who fought and conquered Vicksburg, who committed Atlanta to the flames, who slew our people by thousands at Missionary Ridge and Chickamauga?" Would not the man who refused such aid, be the leader whom he may, have been set down as a lunatic, a stark fool, unfit to take part in the affairs of a sensible people?"

The Greeley Movement.

The two ablest, most determined and most prominent Northern Democratic opposition journals against Greeley are the New York World and Chicago Times. These papers concede the support of Greeley by the Baltimore Convention. There seems no doubt entertained on this point. The Democratic conventions of nearly every State have either declared for Greeley or sent Greeley delegates. It is useless to ignore facts, or to blindly misrepresent them. It is useless to say that conventions have been packed, and the actions of the State conventions do not represent the popular feeling. The fact stands patent that a majority of the Democracy think the best way to advance Democratic principles is to support Greeley and Brown. Of the delegates appointed to the convention, the number, 488, being two thirds, over 600, or more than 100 over two-thirds, are for Greeley.

In looking at the motives that have impelled the party to this anomalous policy, we may possibly arrive at some basis for a willing unanimity of acquiescence in the programme the majority are disposed to adopt. We must not be unfair in our summary of reasons or statement of facts.

We who have found it exceedingly difficult to reconcile ourselves to support of Mr. Greeley must look dispassionately at, and weigh accurately, the causes that have driven so large a body of undoubted and undoubtable Democrats into not only an approval of Greeley's support but to an absolute advocacy of that measure.

We have not seen the case better stated than by Congressman Robert B. Roosefelt, of New York, a Democrat of ability and reputation:

"There are three prominent matters of dispute at present affecting the country; the first is the great question of corruption in office; the second is centralization of power in opposition to the independence of the States, and the third is the demand of the colored people for negro supremacy under special laws, placing the whites at a disadvantage with them. Upon these essential doctrines Horace Greeley is a Democrat, while upon the tariff both parties have a loose hold on their members. If he can be accepted he offers us an almost absolutely certainty of triumph, as he will not only relieve our party from the unjust insinuations made by our enemies in reference to our good faith in accepting the results of the civil war, but will bring to our support a large body of dissatisfied Republicans. His strength among the latter, although apparent already, will not be fully manifested until he is nominated at Baltimore, for without that endorsement he has not the elements of success, and individuals are loth to join a hopeless cause.

* * * * * * * *

Of Mr. Greeley's integrity and devotion to the cause of an honest government, it is unnecessary to speak between us who know him and among whom he has lived the better part of his life. On the other questions involved his opinions are equally well known, and accord perfectly with the acknowledged views of the Democratic party. On essential issues he is therefore entirely in accord with us, so that we make no sacrifice of duty or of honor in accepting the advances of the party which has nominated him and asked for our support and assistance.

"On the other hand, if he is not accepted the dissolution of the Democratic party would seem inevitable. No straight-out Democrat has a probability of election, while no Liberal Republican could now be chosen so as to bring in the supporters of the Cincinnati movement, even if one could be found as popular as Mr. Greeley. We have, therefore, to consider the comparative advantages of moderate concessions, which can afterwards, at the proper time, be again presented for the consideration of the public, or we must prepare to meet a crushing and overwhelming defeat with its concomitants of disorganization and disintegration. The movement in favor of Mr. Greeley has gone too far to be stopped; the Liberal Republicans are formally committed to him, and his selection has taken so firm a hold of the Democracy as to insure its destruction should he be repudiated."

Now, our excellent Democratic friends who form a minority of the party, and who express an unwillingness to support Greeley anyhow, should have some strong and solid arguments to meet the above positions. We are in a crisis where no appeals to prejudice will do. The questions must be practically dealt with. And the practical arguments of practical men must be practically met. No political sentimentalities will be current as satisfactory logic.

We don't propose to fight the burglar at our bed-side in the night with moral lectures on the wrong of burglary. To save our life and property we would cheerfully resort to a handy coal scuttle or a convenient blunderbuss, though there might be a Bible near to discourse him with. If public government is going to the dogs, and our prosperity is involved and we are helpless of ourselves to right the vital matter, some solid reasons must be given for us to reject proffered aid that is not altogether acceptable, that gives promise of helping us out of the public troubles.

Greeley's past record has nothing to do with the situation if the record is free of thieving. How he stands now is the material matter

And against an argumentative construction of Greeley's present views that drags him into championship of centralism now, we offset his revolt from the party seeking to maintain centralism, and his open support of a platform that announces anti-central doctrine.

None have felt greater aversion to Greeley's support than we have, but if the party says so, we shall do it fully. And for the sake of harmony and the success of our principles, it is due the majority of the party who thus determine, that they should not be personally villified, or their arguments and purposes misrepresented.

When the roll is called for the battle, every man must be in line for the fight.

Some of Grant's Doings.

There was an affecting scene in the United States Court, in Montgomery county, Alabama, the other day, when the defendants in the case of the United States vs. Young, et al., for alleged Ku-Kluxing, were called up for sentence. The verdict had been rendered hardly fifteen minutes when the court inquired if the defendants had anything to say why sentence should not be awarded against them. The old man, Young, in a calm and manly manner, free from bragadocio, protested his innocence of the charge, but as he referred to his wife and four daughters dependent on him, now sixty-three years of age, his voice was broken, and there was not in the court room a manly heart but what was wrung with sorrow as the picture arose before them of this aged man in a far off penitentiary, and now his widowed wife and helpless daughters, shelterless and friendless, driven from their little home, which the $5,000 fine will cause to be sold, as well as the little scanty pittance which was all this old man was enabled, after a life of toil, to save from the wreck of the war.

Why sleeps the vengeance of Heaven against the perpetrators of such wrongs? But it will not sleep always. A day of retribution is coming, and God grant it may place the authors of these foul wrongs in the same dungeons now occupied by their innocent victims.

What Parker Has Picked up.

The Columbia correspondent of the Charleston News lets the following paragraph drop concerning the thrift of the present State Terasurer of South Carolina:

A Republican who ought to know says that Parker has five hundred thousand dollars invested in five-twenty United States bonds, which he has picked up since he has been conducting the financial affairs of this prosperous Commonwealth.

How shall Greeley be Taken Up by the Democracy?

The telegraph brings us the news that the Missouri delegates to the Baltimore Convention have had a meeting and urge the Baltimore Convention to support Greeley, not by making a nomination, but by omitting a nomination, and recommend the party to support Greeley as the best thing that could be done. This is the course recommended by General Toombs in his last speech, and to which we have alluded in previous editorials as commending itself strongly to Democratic consideration.

As before stated, it has very strong arguments in its favor.

It renders it easier for the very straight Democrats to go for Greeley, while it unquestionably will draw a heavier Republican rally to him. It reduces the matter of voting for Greeley to just that condition of policy that no Democrat can consistently refuse to go for him at the injunction of the party voice, as principle is not possibly sacrificed thereby.

The idea is gaining ground. This plea for it by the Missouri Democrats, who are the fathers of this sort of strategy must do much to help its adoption.

Mr. Toombs is the representative and spokesman of those who are for a straight nomination, and by this course which he suggests, and which has powerful considerations to support it, any dissatisfaction of these gentlemen can be allayed, and harmonious action be gained.

☞ The Rev. H. C. Hornady, of Mercer University, requests us to say that the statement in the Macon Telegraph that he attended the hanging of Holsenbake and Lloyd, is incorrect.

The Boston Jubilee.

Some of the papers have been reporting that the Boston Jubilee will not pay out. The expenses have been $600,000. Three-fourths of that amount had been received, and the present week is to go upon yet. There will probably be a little over.

On the 29th the squad of Southern editors traveling over the North arrived. Dixie was played in their honor by the slam-bang affair.

The following funny thing occurred at the big ball given on the 27th, which our dancing readers of the young persuasion and of both sexes will enjoy:

Strauss conducted a portion of the music at "the grand international ball." His name being unassociated in the New England mind with anything but waltzes, of course nothing but waltzes were expected from the orchestra when his delicious baton swayed the music. Three or four of his most entrancing morceaux in this line had been given, and the descendents of Miles Standish and the Winthrops had twirled, by thousands of delighted couples, to the pulse-bounding strains, when a slight mistake occurred.

The great programmes upon the walls announced another "waltz by Strauss," but the nervous little genius had, somehow, got the idea that a polka was expected of him. He accordingly gave out the music of his beautiful "Kaiserstadt" to the members of the orchestra, and started them at work.

Swarming upon the floor in enchanted pairs were all the brave and the fair of Boston. Thousands of strong arms encircled thousands of gimp waists, and thousands of feet were twitching impatiently for the supposed waltz to commence.

On went the music, and at the somewhat perplexing task of waltzing to polka time went the myriads of dancers. And they kept at the job until the last strains of the music ceased. Such wholesale twisting and contorting to make the steps fit the measures, eye of mortal had never before looked upon. Not one of the crowd knew enough to tell the difference between the two varieties of dancing, and, as every Chicago devotee of Terpsichore knows, a polka resembles a waltz about as much as Taglioni's most brilliant efforts in the Cachuca line would the one-legged stamping of Silas Wegg.

Strauss took in the joke at the outset, but could not stop the music, and finding that the squirming mass before him were not able to discover their mistake, he kept the orchestra playing nearly double the usual time in order to prolong the mystified torture of the dancers.

It was worth traveling all the way from Chicago to mingle in the crowd when that particular figure was over, and to hear the stereotyped gushing over the "sweet waltzes of Strauss." One charming daughter of the Hub "knew she should never enjoy waltzing again unless that dear Strauss conducted," while hundreds of those whose feet were not yet fairly untangled were equally rapturous in their admissions of stupidity.

Redistricting the State.

Editors Constitution: As it is pretty certain that the Legislature will, at its next session, redistrict the State in order to provide for the election of our additional Congressmen in that way instead of by the State at large, I have prepared a plan which is, perhaps, as near a proper one, according to population, as can be arranged. Owing to the fact that our heavy population is about the two cities of Atlanta and Macon the new districts really are made around those two points which makes some changes with the others.

You will perceive that by this arrangement the districts will represent in population as follows:

	White.	Black.	Total.
First District	64,195	66,225	130,420
Second District	57,238	75,534	132,772
Third District	69,261	62,966	132,227
Fourth District	56,704	81,176	137,880
Fifth District	83,187	48,860	132,047
Sixth District	55,227	65,704	120,931
Seventh District	51,631	79,537	131,168
Eighth District	93,584	41,876	135,460
Ninth District	107,899	23,305	131,204
	638,923	545,183	1,184,109

Under our present system the districts represented population as follows:

First District	178,857
Second District	183,496
Third District	171,880
Fourth District	159,548
Fifth District	175,748
Sixth District	143,494
Seventh District	171,088
	1,184,109

Considering the geograpical position of the districts as given in the lists inclosed as well as the approximation to an equal division as to population, it may meet the wishes of the Legislature to adopt this plan. I am satisfied no better can be arranged.

A Visit to Monroe, Walton County.

Editors Constitution: It has been my good fortune and pleasure to pay this beautiful and pleasant village "among the hills" a flying visit during the past week, and as I am a printer and beyond the circulation of the journal with which I am connected, I promise not to be too lengthy and ask space enough in your valuable columns to give expression to my appreciation of the kind and hospitable treatment of which I was the recipient during my three day's sojourn there.

As I have already said, I am a printer, and you know yourself that all printers in good standing have sweethearts—"the sweetest of 'em all"—and after the curiously interested portion of the good people of Monroe learned that I was neither a corn doctor, a sewing machine agent nor a temperance lecturer they were conceivably convinced that the P. G. in G. was temporarily residing in their midst and that she was the attraction that had caused the stranger to put his appearance in their community.

I arrived in the village by means of a private conveyance from Social Circle, at about six o'clock Saturday afternoon, and stopped with Mr J. P. Laurence, the clever and attentive proprietor of the "Monroe Hotel." "Tom," a very promising youth, keeps a bar upon the opposite side of the street from the hotel, and as he is evidently ever watching for an opportunity to make somebody happy, sent a messenger to my room, soon after my arrival, to ask me if I did not "want sumthin' tew drink," for which I kindly thanked him but declined to take. Tom's magnanimous nature would not be baffled by his first failure to contribute something to my happiness, so he wrote me a note, conveying his compliments, and desiring to call on me at my room that evening, to which I conditionally consented, but the conditions did not seem to please Tom's generosity, so I did not receive his call, and finally had to leave Monroe without forming his acquaintance. Whether he wanted to out-rival me with a drug "drink," or out-shoot me in my room, deponent knoweth not, but I went, and went, and went to see that P. G. in G., and Tom did not do me any harm, more than to point me out upon the street and say good (?) things about me.

On Sunday nearly everybody went to "big meetin'," out in the country a short distance from town, and Monroe was rather dull and lonesome until they began to return.

Monday, in Monroe, just like it does where I live, comes right after Sunday, and I had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of a number of the citizens, all of whom were very entertaining and profusely hospitable.

My visit to Monroe and the people thereof will be long remembered, and to all who desire to spend a few days of quiet, unruffled pleasure, I will say, go to Monroe.

It is to be hoped that they will soon take definite and decisive steps to build a railroad from this place to Social Circle—a distance of only ten miles—and Monroe will be one of the liveliest and most enviable localities in Middle Georgia.

The crops in that section are fine, and with the exception of the little drought now prevailing, the season has been the most favorable the farmers have had for a number of years. The wheat crop is now being thrashed out and the granaries filled to overflowing.

So far as I was capable of ascertaining, the politics of Walton county are, "Anybody to beat Grant."

VISITOR.

A CHOKER.

Colonel Hoge, of California, Don't want to Swallow Greeley—But will Eat Crow if Baltimore Says So.

Mr. President: I am so modest that I am hardly able to return thanks to the convention for the honor they have conferred upon me. I do not intend to make any speech just now. I feel, of course, compelled to submit to the order of the convention, although I have already been on the State Central Committee long enough. I thought to have been retired on the penison list. But, inasmuch as my friends desire me still to work for them, I shall do as well as I can, no matter who carries the banner, and that is saying a good deal. [Laughter and applause.] I have been too long a Democrat, Mr. President, to have any hesitation, any doubt, or any disposition whatever to shirk any duty imposed upon me by the party, or to swallow any candidate or any platform they may cram down my throat. [Applause.] There has been a great deal said upon this subject here. I did not think then the time, and I do not think now the time, to express my sentiments upon these matters. I am willing to wait, and shall wait, for the action of the great council of the party at Baltimore. I shall follow their orders; I shall submit to their decrees, whether they harmonize with my sentiments or not. [Cries of "good" and applause.] But I am free to say, Mr. President, that it will be the bitterest pill to me that ever I swallowed to vote for a Republican [great laughter and applause] of any stripe. [Applause.] I won't say what I would like to say, because I may have to swallow it hereafter. [Great laughter.] I am going to leave myself free to do it without choking, if I can. [Laughter.] But I would like once more to cast a vote for an old true-blue Democrat. [Great applause.] I would like to go down fighting under the old flag, and for the old principles. If we cannot win, let us go down with honor. [Applause.] Let us go down under our old flag, fighting for principle, and not in a scramble for contemptible offices. [Applause.] But I might say a little too much. [Laughter.] I will swallow whatever dose the Baltimore Convention administers to me [applause] no matter how nauseous may be the draught. And that is the best I can say on the subject, Mr. President. I again thank the convention for the honor they have done me, and I will serve them.

Political Matters at Long Branch.

There are collected here a host of

who have made Monmouth Park races a plausible excuse for a mild Confederate conference on matters and things appertaining to the Presidential contest. The race for the cup naturally and properly suggests to them the race for the Presidency. They are here for both; but while backing Longfellow, the Southern horse, against Bassett, they enter the quarter stretch for the White House stakes with prejudiced views as to the entries. They are all for Greeley. Kentuckians took the Philosopher's nomination as a joke; Maryland club men regarded his nomination as a fine American farce, while Mississippians wondered at the apparent folly of the people of Cincinnati. This has been changed. The tidal wave of political thought has dashed over the heads of the fire-eating Democracy since Cincinnati, and Bourbons who went to laugh remain to pray for Greeley and Brown. Governor Bowie, of Maryland, is for Greeley, and so are his friends. Washington Booth, George G. Presburg, Harry Gilmore and the entire Maryland Club, are now heartily for Greeley. Governor Magoffin, of Kentucky; D. M. Basset, C. W. Woolley.

THE RECALCITRANT WITNESS

in the Johnston impeachment trial are for the Philosopher of Chappaqua. Henry and Stephen Duncan, of Mississippi, are of course leaning that way, and are jubilant over the prospect of

THE RESULT AT BALTIMORE.

We have also here Simon Cameron and James Duffy, of Pennsylvania, and ex-Governor McCormick, of Arizona. The latter are, of course, entausiastic for the hero of the Appomattox.—Cor. N. Y. Herald.

Scene at a French Opera Bouffe.

We stood for some seconds stunned, as it were, by the sudden change from the darkness to a blaze of light, by the crash of the music after the comparative quiet outside; by the brilliancy of the scene, and the grotesque appearance of the actors. Below, where the dancers were, a variegated mass, containing every tint of the rainbow, was whirling in and out and round and round like the ever-changing pictures of a kaleidoscope, without their symmetry. Comic figures dancing fantastic pas seuls by themselves; nymphs in short dresses and tights, bare as to their arms, and just a trifle more decolletees than would, perhaps, come up to our English idea of what is becoming; droll military men with gilt hemlets and exaggerated plumes; boatmen in picturesque jerseys; young men dressed up as ancient satyrs; Neptunes dancing with mermaids; gods with goddesses; bottle noses and funny masks everywhere. In one quadrille party I noticed personations of Bacchus, a chimney-sweep, a ghost, and a babboon. It is "the thing" for every mask on making its entree to address a few words or gestures of greeting to the company, who, if his "get-up" pleases them, return his salutation with applause.

☞ A young lady having set her cap for a rather large specimen of the opposite sex, and having failed to win, was telling her sorrows to a couple of confidents when one of them comforted her with these words:—'Never mind, Mollie; there's as good fish in the sea as ever was caught.' 'Mollie knows that,' replied the other; "but she wants a whale."

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The President was interviewed by the attaches to-day. The ceremony presented no features whatever.

Grant leaves to-night for Long Branch.

The weather has been intensely hot to-day.

William Birney has been appointed Receiver of Public Moneys, and Henry Hormon Register of Land Office for the Eastern section of Florida.

Colonel Davidson, commanding at Camp Supply, informs the War Department, through General Pope, that the Kiowas are again on the war path in the direction of Fort Sill. General Pope, in forwarding the communication to the War Department, says he does not fear general hostilities.

Colonel McKenzie, commanding the 4th Cavalry, in a letter dated Fort Richardson, Texas, June 4th, says:

Indian depredations are becoming alarmingly frequent, and the depredators are Kiowas and Comanches, who are fed daily by the Indiant agent on the Canadia river.

In indorsing this communication, Lieutenant General Sheridan says, all the Indians on the reservation are engaged in the bad work, and he sees no way to stop their outrages except by the action of the military at Fort Sill and Camp Supply. He requests of the War Department permission to go in and wipe out the hostile Indians and says the idea of trying to protect the long line of Northern Texas from Indians who are supplied with food, arms and ammunition at the reservation seems to him ridiculous.

Secretary Boutwell will visit North Carolina about the 15th and make two speeches in support of the Republican State ticket.

Secretary Boutwell has written the following letter to the tobacco dealers in New York:

"Sirs: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a letter, signed by yourself and other persons engaged in the manufacture of tobacco, dated July 1st, in which you ask me to revise the decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue concerning the storage of manufactured tobacco in warehouses after the 6th of June and previous to 1st of July. I have examined the question and am of opinion that the action of the commissioner is required by the language employed in the law, and that the ruling accords with the purpose of the Committees of the two Houses charged with the preparation and management of the bill. Tobacco moving under transportation bonds on the 6th of July, when the act was signed by the President, is not necessarily subject to the old rate of duty, as the ruling of the Commissioner; it may be returned to the place of manufacture or held by the Collector of the district to which the consignment was made, until the 1st of July, and then given up to the owner or consignee upon payment of the duty at rate fixed by the new law.

This ruling of the commissioner appears to me to relieve persons engaged in trade of all ground for complaint except what may arise from the general purpose of law, which is manifest in abolishing the warehouse system.

Very respectfully,
GEO. S. BOUTWELL,
Secretary.

Probabilities.—The barometer will probably continue slowly to all, and especially in New York and New England, and Southwest winds continue from Ohio to New England South winds, without a material increase of temperature, but with close, moist atmosphere and light local storms, will be experienced throughout the Atlantic States on Thursday.

NEW YORK, July 3.—A Salt Lake dispatch of last night states that the reports of recent murders committed by Indians have been confirmed, and that a council held there yesterday, consisting of Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Cowan, Gov. Wood, Gen. Morrow, Indian Agent. Dodge and several other officers, it was resolved that Dodge should immediately proceed to the Southern part of the territory to call a council of the Indian chiefs of the various tribes and instruct them to return to their reservation. In case they decline he will inform them that the government will take prompt measures to move against them. Strong detachments of cavalry will be sent South at once.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, July 3.—The Employers Central Executive Committee is about to send manufacturers throughout the country a copy of the resolutions adopted at a meeting of employers on the 18th of June, pledging themselves to pay workmen by the hour and to employ only those willing to work 10 hours, and also blanks containing questions in regard to the systems of labor and their opinions concerning the labor question, also the best mode of preventing and resisting strikes.

The prosecution closed in the Stokes case this evening. McKeon made the opening speech for the defense. He detailed the troubles of Fisk and Stokes up to the day the former was shot. He said that when Stokes saw Fisk ascending the stairs at the Grand Central Hotel. In his first impulse it was to go down, and he went a step or two down, then he paused, and at the same moment noticed Fisk taking out his pistol as if in the act of cocking it. Knowing the desperate character of the man he had to deal with, and knowing that Fisk had threatened his life, he pulled out the pistol which he had carried in self-defence the whole winter and rapidly fired two shots, then walked back and desended the main staircase. Not a soul under Heaven but two saw what happened.

McKeon, in conclusion, assured the jury that some of Stokes' relatives had in an ...; that Stokes' mind was upset since his in... nation by Fisk on a charge of embezzlement.

CLEVELAND, O., July 3.—Two butchers of Royathon, a small village near Cleveland, having a grudge against a farmer named Schweitzer, who lived in Porma township, went to Schweitzer's house and finding no one at home but his grand daughter, nine years old. They seized the child and poured coal oil on her clothes and set them on fire. She was burned so badly that she died in a few hours. Before her death she told the name of the fiends who committed the terrible act.

ROME, ITALY, June 3.—The journals of to-day produce a letter from the Arch Bishop of Naples advising the clergy of his jurisdiction to use their utmost efforts to persuade their Parishes to take part in the administration elections in this country.

PARIS, FRANCE, July 3.—The debate on the bill imposing a tax on raw material is now progressing in the National Assembly at Versailles. The lobbies are full, and the excited speculators and members of the right are resolute in their determination to reject the measure, and hope for a majority against it with aid from the representatives from the free trade districts in the South of France.

Among the questions which have been discussed, is the contingency of the resignation of Thiers and the appointment of a triumverate, to be composed of Marshal McMahon, General L'Admirault and Duc De Broglia in his place is again mooted. The party of the Left are now unanimous in their support of Thiers. They have had an interview with the President, who, on receiving a promise of their assistance, made a brief speech, in which he distinctly stated that he would not in any event resign. Thiers also announced that he was fully aware of the intrigues of the Right, and remarked that the Left might implicitly rely upon him to defend with firmness and all his power the interests of the Republicans.

MADRID, SPAIN, July 3.—The Ipeca, a newspaper of this city, in commenting on an article recently published in the London Times advising Spain to cede Cuba to the United States, energetically scorns the idea of Spain parting with any of her colonial possessions.

INDUSTRIAL MUSEUM

—OF THE—

Georgia State College.

IT is proposed to establish in connection with the STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND THE MECHANIC ARTS, an INDUSTRIAL MUSEUM—to contain models of improved agricultural implements and machines, products of agriculture, products of manufacture, and the mechanic arts generally, representing as far as possible all industrial interests. This appeal is therefore made to the public, not alone to Georgians and the people of the South, but to all interested in Industrial Education, to aid us in this endeavor, by sending to the Museum of the State College whatever may illustrate Agriculture, Manufactures, or any of the Mechanic Arts.

We solicit models of machines of any character; models of bridges; plans and photographs of buildings, bridges, etc.; minerals, specimens of ores; specimens of woods; products of agriculture; products of manufactures, exhibiting as far as possible the various stages of preparation; and generally, whatever may illustrate the industrial arts.

Donations will be acknowledged by publication in the Catalogue. Direct all articles to PRESIDENT STATE COLLEGE Athens, Georgia: marked "for Industrial Museum."

The authorities of the following Railroads, viz: Georgia, Western and Atlantic, Atlanta and West Point, and Central, with its connections, have generously offered to give free transportation to all articles designed for this Museum; and it is expected the other Railroads of the State will be equally liberal

All newspapers favorable to the cause of Industrial Education are respectfully requested to publish this card.

Land for Sale In Mitchell County.

A GOOD lot of land, 250 Acres, in the 9th district of Mitchell county, Southwest Georgia—about one-third hammock and the balance in pine land, can be bought at a bargain. This tract lies near the Gum Pond, and is considered a better lot than the average in that neighborhood. The timber is of excellent quality. Being near Gum Pond, it affords the best facilities for establishing a steam saw mill.

Price Six Dollars per Acre.

Will be conducted, as heretofore, on an independent schedule, without being influenced by "fear, favor or affection." In politics we shall, as formerly, co-operate with the Democratic party, at the same time using every diligence to conciliate the Liberal Republican Movement believing, as we do, that in the combination and consolidation of the Democrats and Liberals, lies the only political hope of the country to be rescued from Military Tyranny and Radical Domination.

To our friends we appeal to assist us in thus extending our circulation, and point with pride to our Record for the past seven years as a consistent, independent and newsy journal. While we have made a few mistakes, yet ... the fact that we have BEEN RIGHT in our political opinions and suggestions relative to the various important public questions that have come up since the war ... the South has been called to think or act. We can only add that we shall continue ... relaxing no effort to give the latest, most reliable and fullest news attainable, not only upon political ... but all matters of public interest.

A ROMAN CAPTURED.—J. E. Rolston, Esq., one of the telegraph operators of this city, was married in Rome yesterday evening, in the Baptist Church to Miss C. H. Hine. To both we wish unalloyed happiness. May all their joys be positive with no "breaks" in the "currents" of their bliss; no thunder cloud of sorrow to burst upon the "battery" of their home and love.

CLOSING OUT SALE.—KNOX, desirous of selling his entire stock of millinery and fancy goods, is offering his stock at a great sacrifice. If you want bargains call on KNOX.

THE PANORAMA.—We call special attention to the panorama now on exhibition in James' Hall. Those wishing to see the beautiful "Pilgrim" will not fail to go and see it while they have an opportunity.

Yesterday he committed James Williams, colored, for refusing to deliver a dray sent to W. R. Phillips by J. R. Bottis.

ATLANTA CADETS.—The regular meeting of Atlanta Cadets has been postponed to Saturday night. They are requested to meet at the Chamber of Commerce, at 8½ o'clock, to transact important business.

THE MONTGOMERY EXCURSION.—It was contemplated to give a Grand Ball to the excursion party from Montgomery and a committee of Council was appointed to manage the reception and entertainment. But learning that neither Governor Lindsay nor any officials from Montgomery will accompany the excursion, and that the party will probably be very large, the idea of a ball has been abandoned by the Council committee, but the hospitalities of the city will be tendered and all proper courtesies.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA, July 3, 1872.

No. 8. Nancy Grooves, et al., vs. James King. Equity, from Brooks. Argument concluded. A. T. McIntyre, Hunter & McCall, James L. Seward, for plaintiffs in error; Hansell & Hansell, H. G. Turner, S. S. Kingsbery, contra.

CLOSING EXERCISES—OGLETHORPE UNIVERSITY.—Yesterday DeGive's Opera House was crowded with a large and fashionable audience. The scene presented was one calculated to cheer every friend of Oglethorpe University. The sea of bright eyes and loveliness in front of the stage was calculated not only to stimulate the youthful orators, but cheer the heart of the Faculty and Trustees. Atlanta ought to feel—does feel as yesterday demonstrated—proud of Oglethorpe and a deep interest in her success. We congratulate the Faculty and Trustees upon the brilliant character of the exercises yesterday.

Upon the stage we noticed Rev. D. Wills, President, and Prof. Stevens, Richardson and Frazer, of the University; B. Mallon, W. M. Janes and R. G Moore, of the Public Schools; Rev. J. S. Wilson, Rev. R. C. Ketchum, Rev. A. T. Spalding, Dr. H. V. M. Miller, Hon. W. Ezzard, Hon. J. E. Brown, Hon. C. Peeples, Gen. W. S. Walker, Gen. A. C. Garlington, Gen. A. Austell, Gen. J. B. Gordon, Gen. A. H. Colquitt, Col. F. Stobo Farrow, Col. E. Y. Clarke, and others.

The exercises were opened with an appropriate prayer by Rev. R. C. Ketchum.

B. P. Gaillard, 2d honor, delivered the salutatory in Latin. He executed this difficult duty with ease, accuracy, grace and beauty.

The next speaker was Henry F. Scott, second honor, whose subject was "Modern Science—its Glory and its shame." The enunciation, diction and elocution of the speaker was par excellence, very fine and stamped him as a natural orator. He dwelt upon the achievements in astronomy, chemistry, agriculture, astronomy and physiology; closing with a scathing review of Darwin's "Origin of the Species," and "Descent of Man."

The subject of the address delivered by Charles B. Gaskill was the "Ruins of Time." His address abounded with brilliant thoughts and beautiful sentiments. His comparison of life to a drop of water was a fine specimen of word painting.

Mr. I. M. Ginn, who was not a graduate, but had attended irregularly, delivered a chaste and eloquent address on the "atrocities of war." The sentiments were sound and the sentences well rounded and glowing with beauty ... the last twenty years—the period of serv... of the present incumbent—developed an er... of only thirty-five cents.—Monroe Advertis...

On Sunday last, a Miss Coker, of Walk... county, committed suicide. We are not a... vised as to the particulars. Rev. James Lane, will make the Literary Address duri...

"True Boldness" was the theme handled with a masters art by Clinton R. Gaskill. He divided the world into three classes: Heroes, would-be-heroes, and hero-worshippers. The Christian was the true bold man, whose boldness arose from a sense of duty and the fear of offending God.

Robert N. Smith delivered an ornate and finished address on "Southern Civilization." If Mr. Smith shall select the fields of literature we predict for him the most brilliant success. His powers of word-painting are remarkable.

Perhaps the most impressive and self possessed speaker was William A. Spencer. His "effort" was without doubt a sure "passport to distinction," judging from the frequent and hearty applause which greeted him during the delivery of his address on "Effort the Passport to Distinction." His illustrations where appropos and fine.

James T. Wills—First Honor—invested his subject, "Every Man has Business and Desires—Such as it is," with peculiar beauty. He spoke of every man being qualified for a peculiar sphere, and cited as illustrious examples Rev. Dr. J. S. Wilson, Governor James M. Smith, B H Hill, L. J. Gartrell, Isaac W. Avery, General J. B. Gordon, J. H. James, General Austell, W. Rushton, Moore & Marsh, Campbell Wallace and others. The speaker was repeatedly cheered and seemed to be a favorite among the ladies.

The Valedictory Address was delivered by Joseph M. Brown, 1st Honorary. Couched in beautiful and terse language; delivered with an ease and impressiveness that charmed and held the audience spellbound; it reflected credit upon the speaker, the graduating class and Oglethorpe.

President Wills, in awarding the diplomas, spoke of the danger of shallow education, and of the object and aim of education. He urged the class to avoid the use of intoxicating drinks and tobacco; not to swear or gamble; not to court before they were ready to marry; not to be idle, selfish, irritable or revengeful "To fear God and keep His commandments, for that was the whole duty of man." Moral excellence, after all, makes the man.

The degree of Master of Arts were conferred upon the following:

James T. Wills, Joseph M. Brown, W. A. Spencer, R. N. Smith, C. R. Gaskill, C. B. Gaskill, R. A. Massey, H. F. Scott, and B. P. Gaillard.

Certificates of good scholarship were awarded to Virgil Norcross and I. M. Ginn.

Rev. Dr. Wills then introduced as the Patriot—Soldier—Orator, Gen. John B. Gordon, who delivered the anniversary address.

His subject was "The defense of truth is never without adequate fruits." His illustrations from ancient and modern history were cogent and beautiful. He was warmly and enthusiastically applauded by the audience. A synopsis will fail to do justice to his effort, and we therefore omit it. It was a speech worthy of the orator and patriot.

Dr. Wurm's band, as usual, discoursed sweet music. Rev. Dr. Spalding pronounced the benediction, and the commencement exercises closed.

A REMARKABLE MAN.—There is a man who has been living in Atlanta since its first settlement; is sixty-two years of age; has not been confined to his bed one day from sickness in forty years; has never been intoxicated; never won or lost a dollar at cards; never had a fight or carried concealed weapons; never served on a jury; has never sued any one or been sued.

He was in company with Captain James Anderson when the present location of Marrietta was selected and helped to cut and carry poles to build the first cabin there; it was then named Nubbinville; was with the engineers when the first line for a railroad from Chattahoochee river to Atlanta was run; went to Marrietta on the first train that passed over the Chattahoochee bridge; went through the tunnel at Tunnel Hill on the first train that passed through it; saw the first bar of iron laid down; the first engine and passenger car that came to Atlanta. He was at a gander pulling in the then woods about where General Austell's residence now stands, and saw Cousin John Thrasher pull the gander's head off; has been in the employ of one railroad company twenty-seven years; became of age on the 29th of September, and voted for Wilson Lumpkin for Governor in October, and has voted the Democratic ticket ever since; has served as Clerk of the Superior Court, Postmaster, Alderman and Mayor was on Stone Mountain in 1826, in company with Hon. A. S. Clayton and has visited it annually ever since. Who is he?

If he is the man we imagine, his sons are all steady and industrious and his daughters all intelligent and beautiful. The quiet, peaceful glen hath more charms for them than the hill top assailed by storm.

MELANCHOLY.—The old bachelors about Atlanta are looking blue. One by one the popular favorites like Miss Gussie Mitchell are sensibly stepping into matrimony and it is time that the old bachelors should be alarmed.

THE members of the Ladies Memorial association will meet this afternoon at 6 o'clock in the Young Men's Library. The meeting yesterday was postponed on account of the rain.

ATLANTA, GA., July 1, 1872.—At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Fulton county, this day convened, at the office of Messrs. Hill & Candler, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, At a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee, held in Atlanta on the 26th of June last, it was resolved that a convention of the Democratic party be held in the city of Atlanta, on the 24th day of July, at 12 o'clock, M., for the purpose of nominating an Electoral Ticket and a candidate for Governor; and,

Whereas, The Democratic party of Fulton county should be represented in said Convention, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Democrats of Fulton county, on Saturday, the 13th of July, do ballot for six delegates to represent the Democracy of Fulton county in said State Convention; that the balloting shall commence at the City Hall at 8 o'clock, A. M., and close at 8 o'clock, P. M.; that the managers shall number the tickets of such voters and keep a list of the votes, and upon counting the votes the six persons receiving the highest number shall be declared elected, and that each delegate so elected shall have the right to appoint his alternate.

Resolved further, That Wm. M. Butt, Esq., W. P. Hammond, Esq., and Lewis H. Clarke Esq., are hereby appointed and requested to act as managers of said election for delegates, and in the event they, or either of them, shall fail to act, any three reliable Democrats may supply their places, to be appointed by the Chairman of the Executive Committee.

THE FIRST PANTALOONS.

BY FLEKA.

Must I put them on him?
I hardly think I can,
'Twill make the darling look
So very like a man.
A d must I put away
Those dainty little dresses,
And take the cruel sheares,
To golden, straggling tresses?

I've tried so hard to keep him
In these little clothes;
Saying every day I'll wait
'Till he older grows.
For I know I'll sadly miss
His winsome, baby ways,
And look back with regret,
To his sunny baby days.

Only see these little shoes
With the pink toes peeping through;
I remember well the day
When they were bright and new,
And how I coaxed and petted
And sang a gleesome song,
To make him sit quite still,
While I should "try them on."

I'll put them with the treasures
I've garnered from the past,
In remembrance of childhood
All too bright to last;
Of guileless, happy babyhood
That disappeared, as soon
As he stepped from little dresses
Into pantaloon.

I know that he must take
This first step up the hill;
And may he ever seek the good,
And shun the ill.
The way is filled with tears
As well as joy—
May the blessing of a mother prove
A talisman for her boy.

Useful.

Experiments have been made to ascertain the quantity of different food which needs to be eaten to make one pound of flesh. The conclusion arrived at is that it requires 25 pounds of milk, 100 of turnips, 50 of potatoes, 50 of carrots, 8 of oatmeal, 7½ of barley meal and 8½ of beans.

Persons who rise early should retire early. No fact has been better established than this, that every person should take as much sleep as nature requires. All the time saved from necessary sleep is destructive to mind, body and estate. People have generally been mistaken as to the importance of rising early unless they retire early.

When persons are feverish and thirsty beyond what is natural, medicated in some cases by a metellic taste in the mouth, especially after drinking water, one of the best "coolers," internal or external, is to take a lemon, cut off the top, sprinkle over it some loaf sugar, working it down into the lemon with a spoon, and then suck it slowly. Invalids with feverishness may take two or three lemons a day in this manner with the most remarkable effect.

When dried, it is ground to powder, mixed with some substance like glue or gum, that causes it to adhere together. It is then pressed into moulds and shaped into buttons, combs, knife-handles, etc.

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or your bowels disorderad, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free from alcohol, and capable of infusing new vitality into your exhausted and disordered system. june14—d&w4w

TEN BECAUSES.—A hundred reasons might be given why Lyon's Kathairon should be used by every intelligent human being in preference to every other preparation for the hair, but ten will suffice. Here they are: Because it nourishes the fibers, multiplies them and makes them grow: because it thus prevents them from withering and bleaching; because it removes the scurf and dandruff which chokes them as tares choke the golden grain; because it keeps the scalp cool and prevents eruptions; because it renders the hair as lustrous as satin; because it makes it pliant and elastic; because it is a fragrant and delightful dressing; because it does not soil the pillow, the cap or the hat; because it is without a rival in cheapness, and because no other article sold for the same purpose, in this or any other country, possesses all or even one-half, of these invaluable properties. july2-deod1w&w1t.

THE CAREER OF A GRAT REMEDY.—Twenty summers have clapsed since it was briefly announced that a new vegetable tonic and alterative, bearing the name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, had been added to the list of Preventative and Restorative medicines. The modest advertisement which invited attention to the preparation stated that it had been used with great success, in private practice, as a cure for dyspepsia, bilious complaints, constipation and intermittent fever. It was soon discovered that the article possessed extraordinary properties. The people, of every class, tested its merits as a tonic, stimulant, corrective and restorative, and found that its effects more than fulfilled their hopes and expectations. From that time to the present its course has been upward and onward, and it stands to-day at the head of all medicines of its class, American or imported, in the magnitude of its sales and its reputation as a safe, agreeable and potent invigorant and restorative. For languor and debility, lack of appetite and gastric disturbances, so common during the summer months, it is absolutely infallible. Indigestion, bilious disorders, constipation, nervousness, periodical fevers, and all the ordinary complaints generated by a vitiated and humid atmosphere, vanish under its renovating and regulating influence. This is its record, avouched by volumes, of intelligent testimony, extending over a period of a fifth of a century, and comprehending the names of thousands of well known citizens belonging to every class and calling. In Europe it is thought a great thing to obtain the patronage of royalty for a "patent medicine," but Hostetter's Bitters has been spontaneously approved by millions of independent sovereigns, and its patent consists in their indorsement. july2-deod1w&w1t.

GEORGIA, Fulton County.

To the Superior Court of said county:

YOUR petitioner, Paul Jones, Senior, showeth that in due course of trade and for a valuable consideration, on the 19th day of December, 1871, by purchase from Jesse C. Kyle, he acquired title to a promissory note (here to the Court shown) for the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars, made by Amy H Sells, W A S Rondeau and P H Snook, payable to said Kyle, or bearer, dated February 13th, 1871, and due on or before the first day of January, 1872; and that at the same time he, by assignment from the said Kyle, acquired title to a mortgage deed, (here also to the Court shown) executed by said Amy H. Sells to said Kyle and his assigns, to secure the payment of said note, and bearing even date therewith; which mortgage deed covers and embraces all that tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the city of Atlanta, and being part of A J Orme's subdivision of block number one hundred and forty-six, in original lot number fifty-one, in the fourteenth district of originally Henry now Fulton county—said portion fronting north on East Harris street, one hundred and eighty-three feet and running back on Butler street two hundred and two feet, with all the rights, members and appurtenances to the said premises in anywise belonging.

Your petitioner avers that the condition of said mortgage deed is broken, that said note is wholly unpaid, and that the amount due thereon is eight thousand dollars, principal, besides lawful interest from maturity. He therefore prays that said mortgage may be foreclosed, and that the usual rule to that end be granted and served according to law.

L. E. BLECKLEY,
June 7, 1872. Petitioner's Attorney.

On filing the foregoing petition, it is ordered by the court that the said mortgagor, Amy H. Sells, pay into court on or before the first day of the next term, to wit, the second Monday in October next, the principal, interest and cost, or show cause why the equity of redemption in and to the said mortgaged premises should not be forever barred and foreclosed; and that this rule be served as prescribed by law.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN JURUBEBA BLOOD PURIFIER

is a powerful Tonic, especially adapted for use in the Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, DERANGEMENT OF THE LIVER AND SPLEEN, TUMORS, DROPSY, POVERTY OF THE BLOOD, DEBILITY, WEAKNESS OF THE INTESTINES, UTERINE OR URINARY ORGANS.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

It is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutricious food, taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and, by its powerful Tonic and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BROWN'S HOTEL, MACON, GEORGIA.

IF long experience and a thorough knowledge of the business in all its diversified branches are essential to the keeping that which the public has long heard of but seldom seen,

A GOOD HOTEL,

The undersigned flatter themselves that they are fully competent to discharge their obligations to their patrons. But they are not only experienced in hotel keeping—they modestly would claim to have

THE BEST ARRANGED AND MOST COMPLETELY AND EXPENSIVELY FURNISHED

House throughout, in the State, which is located exactly where everybody would have it situated, Immediately in Front and Adjacent to the Passenger Dedpot, where travelers can enjoy the most sleep and less liabilities to be left by the perplexingly constant departure of the trains.

To all these important advantages is added a table that is well supplied with the best and choicest dishes the city and country can afford; nor would they omit to mention that their servants, trained to the business, have never been surpassed for politeness and attention to guests.

For the truth of these statements, we refer the public to our patrons who reside in every State in the Union. E. E. BROWN & SON, Proprietors. apr27-dtf
